

POTENTIAL SOURCES OF AMERICORPS MATCH FUNDING

Federal Government

- The United States Government maintains websites that provide information on grants available through the federal government. This information can be accessed through the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance at www.cfda.gov.

State Government

- The State of California's Get Grants website (www.iig.ca.gov/projects/grantsum.shtml) contains information on grant funding available from state government agencies. The database is searchable by department or program name. The following list is not comprehensive, but is a sampling of departments and agencies that have had grants listed through the California Get Grants website.

Education
California Arts Council
Student Aid Commission
Environment
Department of Fish and Game
Department of Forestry and Fire Protection
Department of Parks and Recreation
Public Safety
Department of Justice
Other Human Needs
California Arts Council
Department of Health Services
Department of Housing and Community Development
Department of Mental Health
Health and Human Services Agency
State Council of Developmental Disabilities

- The California Children and Families Commission is also a source of potential match funding. Grants are awarded directly through CCFC, and through a network of county commissions. The CCFC website is www.ccfc.ca.gov. Links to county commissions can be found at www.ccfc.ca.gov/countyinfo.htm.
- AmeriCorps environmental programs have had some success at obtaining match funding through the California Department of Conservation's Division of Recycling. The Division of Recycling's website is www.consrv.ca.gov/dor/index.htm.

Local Government

- Many AmeriCorps programs partner with school districts that provide matching funds. Contact information for local schools and districts can be found through the California Department of Education's website at www.cde.ca.gov/school/dir.
- AmeriCorps programs have also obtained matching funds from city government grants. Examples include a Department of Children, Youth and their Families and a solid waste management program.

Private Funders

- Community foundations provide support to a range of local community-based organizations addressing numerous issue areas. Many community foundations also assist local nonprofit organizations by providing information on other funders. The list below contains contact information for 28 community foundations located throughout California. For more information, visit the League of California Community Foundations at www.lccf.org.
